
Moments and Memories

July 2008

The ART CENTER of Cannon County
presents thirty-four works by

Jeff MAYFIELD

Mixed media and photography reveal glimpses and interpretations of artist Jeff Mayfield's individual journey through life. His works capture some of the moments and memories that have molded and enriched his life and character. These images present Mayfield's personal visual "scrapbook", but can also be viewed as cultural universals. The artists hopes that his images will spark remembrances of special times in the lives of the viewer.

Artist's Statement

"Art uses many mediums to communicate with one's emotions and spirit. For me, visual media express my feelings, thoughts and ideas.

My work uses the visual arts to communicate emotional and spiritual messages through treatment of scenes and objects of daily life.

"I hope my art will speak to you."
